EXHIBITION

32 influential beauty brands were at the launch of Beauty Africa Exhibition and Conferences, showcasing the newest products and services on the market to over 1,200 attendees from across West Africa. Beauty Africa provided a unique platform for these key industry players to demonstrate the latest collections of cosmetics, top-of-the-range wigs and extensions, as well as the latest skincare ranges. Across three days, the exhibitors had the opportunity to showcase their products, meet and network with new clients and to promote their brands through our official beauty bloggers who were on site to witness the buzz of Beauty Africa.

CONFERENCE

The first event of its kind, Beauty Africa Conference featured 3 action packed days of beauty, haircare and skincare sessions. From business talks to lectures and live demos, industry experts gathered to showcase the latest trends, styles and techniques within the beauty industry.

BUSINESS TALKS:

Each day kicked off with the interactive Business Talks, hosting regional and international industry experts from each of the sectors. Some of the main discussion points were on how to market yourself as a key player in Nigeria's beauty industry, how to build a sustainable business and also how to enhance your training and infiltrate the international beauty market. The panel discussions allowed interactivity from the delegates where they could ask questions and interact with the panel of world renowned experts.

THE LECTURES AND WORKSHOPS:

The afternoon featured the lectures and live workshops. The lectures discussed the theory behind some of the live demonstrations.

There were lectures on the top beauty looks for West African women, airbrushing, editorial makeup, hair styling techniques, cutting techniques, blow drying mistakes, age-defying principles, medical solutions for acne, as well as pigmentation & scarring. Each afternoon then concluded with hour-long live demonstrations led by top experts in the industry.

MEET THE EXPERTS

Top experts from the makeup, haircare and skincare industries took part in this action-packed 3 day conference. They gave their views and opinions in the interactive business talks, as well as giving formal lectures on techniques they have acquired and finally demonstrating their skills and methods on real life models.
