

Having trouble viewing this email?Click here

Quick Links:
Register Now
Members- $295
Non-Members- $425

Importing Into the United States: How to Comply with U.S. Customs & Border Protection
Wednesday, October 28, 2015
12:30 - 2:00 pm ET
Register Now

Upcoming Events:

Retail & Consumer Products Regulatory Compliance Conference
September 29-30, 2015
Sacramento, CA

Science Symposium & EXPO
October 20-21, 2015
Newark, NJ

Emerging Issues
November 18, 2015
Marina del Ray, CA

2016 Annual Meeting
February 28-March 2, 2016
The Breakers, Palm Beach, FL

If you import merchandise into the U.S., you may not realize, but, you are the responsible party! In this presentation, we will discuss how to comply with U.S. Customs and Border Protection's (CBP) vast laws and regulations. By the end of the webinar you will know and understand the importance of tariff classification, customs valuation, country of origin marking, intellectual property rights and free trade agreements. You will also learn basic customs concepts and terms like CBP Form 3461 & CBP 7501, Protests, Seizure cases, Liquidated damage claims, Penalties/Fines, Prior disclosure, and FP&F Petition Process.

Learn key best practices and hear real life case studies. Learn what to do, and more importantly, what NOT to do, and what the consequences are for non-compliance. Jennifer will also share with you the Top 10 Tips When Importing to Ensure Compliance.

Meet Our Speaker

Jennifer Diaz is a shareholder in Becker and Poliakoff. She is a board certified international attorney and considered an expert in international law by The Florida Bar. She leads the firm's Customs and International Trade practice, assisting clients with issues relating to the import and export of merchandise to and from the United States. Diaz is also the editor of the Customs and International Trade Law Blog.

